

APPLICATION CHECKLIST

Han University requires documentation of the following for admission into the Master of Acupuncture or Master of Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine degree programs:

- Two years of accredited college or university study (90 quarter credits or 60 semester credits).
- Ninety (90) hours of Anatomy and Physiology (may be taken concurrently as a co-requisite during the first year of the program.)
- One course each in biology, chemistry and microbiology from an accredited college or university (may be taken concurrently as a co-requisite during the first year of the program.)

----- $150.00 non-refundable application fee with Application Form

----- $25.00 non-refundable transcript evaluation fee for transfer credit requests

----- One to two page autobiographical sketch that describes your reasons for pursuing this course of study and why you want to attend the Asian Institute of Medical Studies

----- Complete, up-to-date CV

----- Two letters of recommendation to support your application (to be mailed separately by those individuals)

----- Physician's letter (from an MD, DO, DC or Acupuncturist) attesting to your ability to undertake a rigorous program of study

----- Physical exam with proof of negative PPD (tuberculosis test) on form provided by AIMS

----- Official transcript(s), sent directly from the degree granting college or university, showing at least 60 semester credits or 90 quarter credits of college

----- Two recent passport sized photos for student identification cards, when admitted

----- Documentation of an acupuncture treatment

----- Please arrange for a personal interview with the Admissions Director at:
(520) 322-6330

Please have all information sent to:

Han University of Traditional Medicine
3131 N. Country Club, Suite 100, Tucson, AZ 85716